PROJECTS

- Quiz App

Designed a quiz app using Javascript where users get scores on choosing every correct answer from the options given and the name of the user with highest score gets display when the quiz ends.

- Blog using Wordpress

I have designed my personal blog on Wordpress. During the designing phase, I have gained some hands-on experience with wordpress which I think can be beneficial for me during my career journey ahead.

TRAINING

Currently doing training in ASP.NET which is for a duration of 3 months through online medium.
